Dear Mr. Mack:

In reference to your request on behalf of "The President's Committee" of Citizens for the Republic, I am pleased to confirm that your visit to CIA has been scheduled for Monday, 15 April, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. at our Headquarters Building in Langley, Virginia (see attached map). Please plan to enter at the Route 123 entrance. [redacted] a veteran with many years of intelligence experience, is prepared to talk to you about intelligence and national security. There will be a question-and-answer period following his presentation. Please plan to arrive no later than 12:45 p.m.

To satisfy our security requirements, I ask that at least ten days in advance of your visit I receive an alphabetized list of all attendees with full name, home address, date and place of birth, and social security number for each. We also require a brief statement from you that all are U.S. citizens, since we are not prepared to accommodate foreign nationals. I plan to meet you on your arrival and to be available to help throughout your visit.

Each individual should plan to bring some form of identification with photograph to show to the receptionist upon entering the building. If you will let me know of any handicapped persons who will attend, I will make special arrangements to assist them. Since we have limited parking facilities, it will help to know in advance the number and description of vehicles you will be arriving in. Buses or vans should plan to stay here for the duration of your visit (otherwise, special arrangements must be made with the gate, which means an even earlier arrival). I apologize in advance for any inconvenience that may be caused by the construction of our new Headquarters addition.

The Agency allows neither hazardous equipment--such as weapons or explosives--nor cameras, recording devices, or radio transmitters to be brought into the building, which I guess should go without saying. Nevertheless, to save embarrassment, you might mention these things to our guests.

Also attached is a checklist summarizing these details, which I hope will assist you in making arrangements. We look forward to your visit. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to call me at [redacted]

Sincerely,

Dear Bill:

I understand that the Agency occasionally provides unclassified briefings such as the ones requested by Citizens for the Republic in their February 27 letter to your public affairs office (copy attached).

As you can tell from their letterhead, this group has been extremely supportive of the President throughout the years. If there is any way that the Agency can provide a briefing on the day of their meeting with the President on April 15, it would be very much appreciated.

Thanks for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Ed

Gentlemen:

On April 15, 1985, "The President's Committee" of Citizens for the Republic will be in Washington for a reception with President Reagan and a series of other events.

We would very much like to include the CIA on our itinerary with an unclassified briefing at your headquarters and, if possible, a tour of some of your facility. As our meeting with the President will be at 6:00 p.m. on the 15th, we would propose a 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. time frame to be with you. We expect members from all over the country to attend, but the total probably will not exceed 100.

In the past, in addition to meetings with the President, our group has met with various members of the Cabinet and White House officials, including Secretary Weinberger, Secretary Hodel, Secretary Clark, Secretary Heckler, Secretary Dole, Secretary Edwards, Ambassador Kirkpatrick, Ed Meese and Mike Deaver. We have also been fortunate enough to have Mr. Casey attend one of our events.

We would greatly appreciate the briefing to include any one or group of the following subjects:

- 1) Unclassified CIA Mission Briefing
- 2) Verification problems in arms control
- 3) Central America

- 4) Middle East
- 5) Afghanistan
- 6) Outlook for further U.S. relations
with key Third World nations
- 7) Soviet intelligence in the U.S.

Of course, any other subject you would deem appropriate would be welcome.

Thank you for your help in this matter. We will be most grateful to be able to enhance our members' visit to Washington with such an informative and special afternoon.

Sincerely,

CURTIS MACK
Executive Director
